After His Awful Deed He Coolly Enjoys a Smoke While He la Pillaging the House,

Houston, Tex., April L-Mrs. Anna C. Shaw and her withowed sister, Mrs. Johnson, were mardered in a horrible Johnson, were murdered in a horrible manner at their home in this city Wednesday night. Thursday morning at 9 o'clock some neighbors who went to visit the women found both of them dead on the dining-room floor. Mrs. Shaw's throat was cut from ear to ear, while her slater's was alashed through the jugular to the windplys. In the next room was found the bloody razor with which the crime was committed. Beside a washbowl, filled with bloody water, was a half-smoked eigarette with bloody finger imprints on it. All with bloody finger imprints on it. All the doors had been unlocked with bloody hands and all the drawers had been broken. Walter E. Shaw, son of one of the murdered women, was ar-rested for the crims. Sheriff Ellis has just returned with him from Galveston, where he captured him. Shaw was too drunk to give an account of himself. His underclothes are covered with blotches of blood as if made by his hands in changing clothes.

This soap is manufactured by Solon Palmer. New York. It is not made of tallow, but of French pomade. These pomades are used in chiefs. After the oder is washed from them manufactured into soap. Of course the supply of pomade is limited and the output of the soap small; but the quality is the best of any soap in the market, because the permades are composed of the finest materials and are used for extracting the odor from the flowers. Each cake weighs five ounces. The suds are free from the alkaline nature so injurious to tender hands and faces. We have had it branded Marshmallow, to distinguish it from inferior sonps. It cannot be purchased in the dry goods stores, as the trade-mark "Marshmalow." by mutual agreement, belongs to Peck Bros., and we decline to sell it at wholesale. Try a box of the Marshmallow Soap and decide upon its merits. 30c for three cakes.
